

OLAYA

SOUND SYSTEM

A musical experience of Peruvian, Tropical, Andean and African-American rhythms with lyrics full of positive messages. Olaya Sound System live performance is a powerful wave that has turned the band into a confirmed reference of the alternative and contemporary music in Peru. The band's exploration began around 2008 with a reggae that was quickly influenced by the native sounds of their land.

OLAYA'S WAVE

With 4 albums, the band has turned in a reference of alternative and contemporary music in Peru. This take them to be part of many national and international music festivals with bands like Cafe Tacuba (Mexico), Sargento García (Francia), Chico Trujillo (Chile) and Systema Solar (Colombia).

In 2015, the third album "Quién es Quién" was presented in a tour across the cities of the peruvian south. The next year, Olaya's music arrived to Uruguay, Argentina and Chile for the official presentation of the album in Latin America.

"MÚSICA DEL MAR"

In 2017, the fourth album arrived: Musica del Mar. This evokes textures, sensations and aquatic themes. Produced by the peruvian musical producer Jesus "El Viejo" Rodriguez, this new material explore and lead to the full expression of Olaya own sound.

"This production, in particular, have many songs with tropical and summer sounds; with lyrics full of unity and respect for nature messages", commented Lorenzo Zolezzi, singer and lead guitar of the band.

Videoclip - Agua de Manantial

Videoclip - Quiero Que Llueva

Videoclip - Desaparecer

PRESS

"The band its one of the most promising in the peruvian musical scene."

Sounds and Colours

"The Olaya's lyrics works like a scape door from the concrete jungle and avoid the city enclosure."

Diario 16

"The band have sounds of huayno and typical pentatonic melodies of andean music, without careless their essence of cumbia and reggae."

Revista Somos

"The idea of mix the reggae with cumbia and ska showed up with naturalness in the band. The same happened with the influence of the andean and jungle sounds from Peru that Olaya Sound System take to remake in their songs."

Escape

Olaya Sound System presents "Música del Mar"

DISCOGRAPHY

The fourth and most recently album of the band was presented in 2017. Their mix of rithyms that evokes to a aquatic world put them like a referent of the tropical contemporary music in Peru.

The third album was presented in 2015 and consolidate the band like one of the most active projects in the indie music scene in Peru.

This album was presented in 2012 and took the band a step ahead in the creation of their own sound with more influences of andean and tropical sounds.

Presented in 2010, is the debut album of the band. Full of reggae, dancehall and tropical sounds, is the faithful reflection of their rebels and strong start.

Lorenzo Zolezzi
Lead guitar, voice

Jim Marlow
Minor percussion

Matteo Bonora
Rithym guitar, voice

Rodrigo Castillo
Drums

Oscar Mauricio
Congas, voice

Alonso Rodriguez
Bass guitar